

filming

Forrest Gump ran here, Iron Man flew here, Paul Newman's Henry Gondorff lived and worked here in The Sting and your next hero could have their pivotal moment here. The scene-stealing Santa Monica Pier, Pier tenants (e.g. restaurants, arcade, shops), Pacific Park and Carousel are available to set the stage or provide a stunning backdrop for your next project.

All commercial filming on the Santa Monica Pier - or with the premises in the background - requires approval and a permit, issued by FILMLA and the City of Santa Monica. We'll help you coordinate all necessary documentation and work with you, Pier tenants, FILMLA and City Personnel to ensure an easy and seamless filming process.

Additional still photography and licensing fees apply. No filming on the weekends.
